Among their guests were Miss Mary Mackey Meade, of Kansas; Miss Gardner, of Washington, D. C.; Miss Louise Meade, of White Post; Miss Mande Kennerly, of Clarke county; Mr. Pereu, of New York; Mr. Gardner Waller, Mr. B. M. Richardson, Mr. Butler Briscos and Mr. D. F. Hansbrough, of Front Royal.

The house party was given in honor of Miss Meade, of Kansas.

Penzer—Warren.

Miss Melan Warren was united in mar-

Miss Meade, of Kainer. Warren.

Miss Helen Warren was united in marriage to Mr. Percy Penzer Wednesday evening, June ist, in the home of her parents. Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Warren, of No. 318 East Leigh Street.

Mr. Reginald Walker played the wedding march from Lohengrin as the bridal party entered. The wedding was very quiet on account of the recent death of the bride's brother. Mr. A. J. Warren and Mr. Richardson were the attendants. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white chiffon over taffeta, and carried a bouquet of Bride roses. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. Spooner, of Broad Street Methodist Episcopal Church. A delightful wedding supper was served, the table being decorated with smilax and American Beauty roses. Wedding gifts received by the young couple were unusual in number and beauty.

Hanover Wedding.

A beautiful wedding was celebrated June 2d at Prospect Church, Hanover county, when Miss Lelia Gay Moore be-came the bride of Mr. Richard Robert-county, when Miss Lelia Gay Moore became the bride of Mr. Richard Robertson Holt.

Miss Florence Dansy, of Richmond, played the wedding march very sweatly as the bridal party entered in the following order:

First, Mr. Henry Rosbach and Mr. J. O. Burnett, of Hamover; then Miss Elhel Moore, sister of the bride, and Miss Myrile Peace, of Richmond; Mr. Sidney Jones and Mr. Herman Peace, of Hanover; Miss Ora Pemberton, of Richmond, and Miss Julis Duval, of Hanover. The bridesmalds wore white mull, with lace trimming, and carried pink carnations. The maid of honor, Miss Ada Moore, of Richmond, wore white French batiste. Her flowers were white scannations. The bride entered with her brother, Mr. Powhatan R. Moore, of Richmond, and was met at the altar by the groom and his beat man, Mr. Thomas Holt. She wore an exquisite gown of white creipe dechine, garnitured with hand-wrought isce. Her veil was caught with white roses and her bridal bouquet was a shower of the same lovely flowers.

Among those who witnessed the ceremony were Mrs. W. A. Cole, Miss Annie and Master Willie A. Cole, Mrs. J. W. Steveson and Mrs. Dansy, of Richmond.

Burruss—Powell.

Burruss-Powell.

Burruss—Powell.

Miss Edile Nelson Powell, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Powell, of No. 1928 West Cary Street, and a very popular young lady, was married in Washington, D. C. on Wednesday last at 2:46 A. M., to Mr. William L. Burruss, a well known young Richmond man.

Miss Powell was accompanied to Washington by her brother, Mr. Joseph F. Powell. After a visit to the St. Louis Exposition, Mr. and Mrs. Burruss will reside at No. 1968 Floyd Avenue, after June 15th.

Japanese Garden Fete.

A Japanese garden fete for the benefit of the Sheltering Arms Free Hospital will be held at the corner of Twenty-seventh and Broad Stroets Thursday and Friday, evenings, June 9th and 10th. Music and paim reading by Madame Zakia will be the attractive features of the occasion. On Friday afternoon, from 4 to 8, there will be a special entertainment for the children. ment for the children.

It is hoped that the worthy object of the entertainment will elicit a ready response from the public.

King's Daughters.

The circle of King's Daughters, "In the Service of the King," will meet Mon-day afternoon at 4:20 o'clock with Miss Lucile Johnson, Twenty-sixth and-Frank-lin Streets.

Roberts-Burnett.

KODERTS—BURNETT.

Cards are out announcing the marriage at 8:14 o'clock Wednesday evening. June 8th, in old St. John's Church, of Miss Dorls Eatelle Burnett, the daughter of Sanitary Officer A. Burnett, to Mr. Charles Lightfoot Roberts.

The announcement has awakened unusual interest in East End society, where Miss Burnett is well known, her charming personality having won her many friends, and her sweet voice having delighted audiences on many occasions. She friends, and her sweet voice having de-lighted audiences on many occasions. She is at present a member of St. John's choir. The groom-elect is a popular young business man of the city, and is hold in high esteem by a wide circle of acquaintances. He will be attended at his wedding by her brother, Mr. H. E. Kurnett, who will be his best man. Oth-er groomsmen will include, Mr. August Simonpietri, Mr. R. T. Durham, Mr. Clarence B. Griffin, Mr. S. Parrish, Mr. F. W. Redd and Dr. Oscar Owens, of Redd and Dr. Oscar Owens, of of honor. An attractve list of brides-maids takes in the names of Miss Annie Blagg, Miss Lilian Gentry and Miss Mary Roberts, the groom's sister.

Manchester, Va. Mrs. S. O. Cox, of Portsmouth, Va.

After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Rob-erts will leave by boat for New York. They will return by way of Atlantic City. Philadelphia, Wilmington, Del.; Baltimora and Washington. They will make their home temporarily with the bride's pa-rents, at No. 2315 East Broad Street.

marily with the bride's paral auditor of the Virginia Passenger and Power Company, has returned to the Natural Bridge Excursion.

The Masonic Orphana' excursion June 21st to the Natural Bridge will be liberally patronized. Many Richmond parties are being made up for it, and others are expected from Ashland and Petersburg. The tickgis, which are now on sale at No. 830 East Main Street, will be good for three days on the train and stages, but persons remaining the third day winhave to pay extra for hotel accommodations.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. Robert H. Keim, wife of the general auditor of the Virginia Passenger and Power Company, has returned to the city much improved in health, after a month's solourn at her mother's home in St. Alban's, Vermont, on Lake Champlain.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Johanna Christian Boschen to Mr. Charles Wellford Ander-Missellons.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. Robert H. Keim, wife of the general auditor of the Virginia Passenger and Power Company, has returned to the city much improved in health, after a month's solourn at her mother's home in St. Alban's, Vermont, on Lake Champlain.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Johanna Christian Boschen to Mr. Charles Wellford Ander-Missellons.

Mrs. Robert H. Keim, wife of the guests of honor.

Mrs. Robert H. Keim, wife of the Virginia Passenger and Power Company, has returned to the city much improved in health, after a month's solourn at her mother's home in the mother's home and power Company, has returned to the city much improved in health, after a month's solourn at her mother's home in the city much improved in health, after a month's solourn at her mother's home in the city much improved in health, after a month's solourn at her mother's home in the city much improved in health, after a month's solourn at her mother's home in the city much improved in health, after a month's solourn at her mother's home in the city much improved in health, after a month's solourn at her mother's home in the

Mrs. J. 8. Crook and children, accomlanied by Miss Lula D. Longan, left yesterday for an extended visit to Maryland, where they will be guests at "Rose Lawn," Bykesville, the home of Miss F. A. Crook.

Mrs. Robert Page Grymes will leave Tuesday for Winterpock, Va., where she will be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Heniey, until August. In August swill pay a series of visits to friends near the University of Virginia, to Mrs. Paul Howle, of Mouht Carbon, W. Va., and to her son, Mr. James C. Grymes, who lives in the mining district of West Virginis, where he has a beautiful home.

Miss Orrie L. Hatcher was one of sev-

There should always be found a bottle of the famout Hostetter's Stormach Hitters. It is good for every member of the family and if taken at the start may counteract a long sick spell. No other is just as good nor so safe and reliable. It puts the stomach in a normal condition and cures Billiousness, Constipated Bowels, Dyspepse, Indigestion, Insomnia, Liver Troubles and Malaria. Doctors and Druggists recommend it. Try one bottle.

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Miss Mamie Chesley, of Fredericksburg, is visiting Miss McClay, of No. 715 West Clay Street.

Miss Lucy Ashley Slowart, of Tazewell, Va., is the guest of Mrs. McSweeney, of No. 500 North Twenty-first Street.

Dr. Cabell Tabb, medical director of the Life Insurance Company of Virginia, is in New York, attending the lifteenth annual convention of the Association of Life Insurance Medical Directors of the United States and Canada.

Mrs. John B. Richardson and daughter, Miss Ada T. Richardson, of New Orleans, La., are the guests of Mrs. Dr. H. Cabell Tabb, No. 2005 West Franklin Street. Mrs. Richardson will represent the Washington Artillery at the unveiling of their memorial window in old Blandford Church, Petersburg, on June 9th, her husband, Colonel Richardson being the comanding officer of the artillery.

Mrs. Mary V. Pickett, of New York, formerly of New Orleans, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. J. M. Macon, at No. 206 East Cary Street.

Mr. J. J. Davenport has gone to Red Springs, N. C., for the improvement of his health.

Dr. John P. Davidson left Saturday night for New York city. He will spend son, the marriage to take place Wednes-day morning, June 8th, at 8 o'clock, in the home of the bride, No. 125 South Laurel Street.

Mrs. John R. Livesey, of Chestnut Hill, is at Cape Henry, Va.

Mrs. W. H. Payne has left Washington, D. C., for her summer home in Warrenton, Va. Colonel John S. Harwood will spend next week in Springfield, Ill.

The entertainment committee of the board of managers of the Home for Needy Confederate Women will meet Wednesday at 10 A. M. in the home of Mrs. A. J. Pyle to arrange the programme of dedication excretes for the opening of the new Home, No. 3 East Grace Street.

The house, No. 510 East Franklin Street, now occupied by Miss Isoline Moses, has been bought by Mrs. Clarence Cadot, who, with her family, will occupy it as a residence in the autumn.

Much interest is folt in regard to a party leaving Richmond for the World's Fair July 19th, to be chaperoned by Mfs. Anna F. Rahm and Miss Bettie Ellyson.

The party is given for the benefit of the Retreat for the Sick and the expense of the round trip will be $45. This includes railroad transportation and transfer of persons and luggage to and from hotel, seven days' board, five entrances to exposition, tally-ho ride around St. Louis, rides on the lagoon and intramural railway and other amusements.

For further details, apply to Mrs.

mer at Crozet, Albemarie county, Va.

Mrs. C. Lee Morrison, of Woodbury, N. J., expects to visit relatives and friends in Richmond the last of June.

Miss Mary Bryan, the daughter of the Rev. C. B. Bryan and Mrs. Bryan was awarded the art medal at the Hampton College finals. The delivery of the medal was made by Judge E. E. Montague, of Hampton.

Mass made Pendleton and her daugh-Hampton.

Mrs. Eugene Pendleton and her daugh-ter, who have been visiting relatives in Richmond, have left for their home, "Cuckoo," Louisa county, Va.

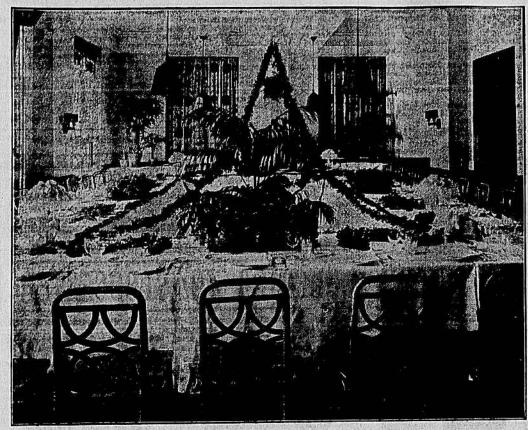

"Guckoo," Louisa county, va.

The Harrisonburg News of Friday says: The event, which is attracting the most attention in social circles in Harrisonburg at this time, is the approaching marriage of Mr. N. Wilson Davis and Miss Caroline Switzer, which is announced to take place on Thursday evening, June 8th. The bride-to-be is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Al Switzer, and her lovely disposition and other attractions render her very popular in this community, Mr. Davis is a son of Professor Noah K. Davis, of the University of Virginia, and is a talented and skilful civil engineer. He is well known in the Valley of Virginia.

Judge Adam C. Carson, judge of the Judge Adam C. Carson, judge of the Court of First Instance, Philippine Islands, expects to return to his home at Riverton, Va., for a visit about June 15th, Judge Carson, who formerly practiced law in Front Royal, va., resigned from a volunteer regiment to accept a position under the civil government of the islands, and now presides over a very important tribunal.

Sir Henry Durand, the English Am-

THE BRIDAL TABLE AS IT APPEARED AT THE WEDDING OF MISS RAE HESS-BERG, OF THIS CITY, TO MR. ISAAC HESSBERG, OF NEW YORK CITY.

The table was set in the Dutch Room of The Richmond Hotel, on Wednesday evening last, the mariage ceremony taking place in the ball-room. The exquisite table decoration was done by Mr. W. A. Materne, of New York, now associated with the management of The Richmond. Mr. Ike Greenbaum was master of ceremonles and the wedding was a very handsome affair.

few days at Atlantic City before re-

Mrs. Andrew Hero, of New Orleans, La., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Cabell Tabb, No. 2005 Monument Avenue.

Mr. R. C. Nelson returned from St. Louis during the week, and left for a visit to Chase City, Va., Saturday.

Mr. C. W. Saunders has gone for a three weeks visit to the St. Louis Exposition.

Mrs. John H. Powell and her son, Mr, John Powell, who recently returned from Vienna, are spending the month of June at Willoughby Beach.

Mrs. Frank Nalle and children, who spent the winter in Richmond, have returned to their country home, in Orange county, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Triplett, who were married in Charlottesville Wednesday last and spent several days of this week at The Richmond, left yesterday by the Berkeley for Portsmouth, Va.

While here Mr. and Mrs. Triplett were informally entertained by Mrs. Triplett's ssiter, Mrs. Ramon D. Garcin, who invited a few friends to meet them and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jackson, the two bridal couples being the guests of honor.

MR. AND MRS. ISAAC HESSBERG, OF NEW YORK. Whose marriage was colobrated Wednesday, June 1st, at 6 P. M., in the ball-room of The Richmond Hotel, this city. Mrs. Hessberg, before her marriage was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Hessberg, of No. 1004 West Franklin Street. Mr. Hessberg is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Hessberg, of New York, and is a bunker by profession.

Rahm, Miss Ellyson or to the Retreat for the Sick. No. 319 North Twelfth Street. The reason why that five entrance fees to the exposition are mentioned is be-cause Sunday will intervene and one day will be given up while in St. Louis to sightseeing.

. . . .

The regular meeting of the Richmond Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, will be held in Lee Camp Hall, Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

It is expected that Mrs. Stonewall Jackson will be present at this meeting, also Mrs. Farrow, of Laurens, S.C., president of the chapter there, and Miss Poppenheim, of Charleston, S. C., the sister of Mrs. Hugh Miller, of Richmond, prominent in Confederate organizations, and in the Federation of Woman's Clubs.

The Richmond Daughters of the Confederacy and visiting Daughters are asked to come and meet these distinguished guests.

Miss Margaret Lynn Preston, who has been appointed by General Garnett to represent Southwest Virginia at the Nashville reunion, is the daughter of Captain John M. Preston, who served in the Confederate army for four years; in the Confederate army for four years; was wounded at Gettysburg and at Mine Run. Miss Preston belongs to the well known Scotch-Irish Preston family of Virginia and also to the Lewis's of Revolutionary note. She is secretary of the smyth County Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, and has been presented with a splendid silver "loving cup" by the gentlemen of the county in token of their appreciation of her work in getting up the handsome Confederate monument, now ornamenting the court green at Marion.

Mr. Felix Leterman is visiting his parents in Charlottesville, Va.

Miss Mamie Cravo will spend the sumbassador to the United States, while spending several days in Winchester, is visiting the battle ground of Kernstown, Cedar Creek, and others in that vicinity. He is an enthusiastic admirer of General Stonewall Jackson, and is going over the scenes of his Valley campaign.

Miss Carrie Lee Baker, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. Shepherd, of this city, has returned home.

Mrs. Ida Watson and Miss Watson expect soon to visit friends in Fluvanna county.

Mrs. Alfred W. Gibbs and daughter, of Altoona, Pa., are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. C. R. MoVeigh, No. 212 West Main Street, this city.

OUT-OF-TOWN SOCIETY.

Miss McCalla, Daughter of Admiral McCalla, to Wed.

A recently announced engagement, in ter of Admiral and Mrs. McCalla, of the United States navy, to Mr. William Wallace Chapin, of Philadelphia, at present in Sacramento, California. Admiral Mo-Calla's family are stationed at Mare Island, California. Miss Stella McCalla's elder sister, Miss Bessie McCalla, married Captain William Miller, of the navy, the son of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Miller, of this city.

Miss Helen Roosevelt and Mr. Theo Miss Helen Roosevelt and Mr. Theodore Roosevelt Robinson will be married Saturday, June 18th, in the home of the bride's father, at Hyde Park, on the Hudson. Miss Alice Roosevelt, daughter of the President, will be a bridesmaid. Mr.
Charles Edward Adams, of Toledo, will play the part of best man. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Astor, is abroad, and therefore cannot attend the wedding, but the Astor family will be represented by Miss Orme Wilson.

Out-of-town life is on with a swing in the neighborhood of Gotham. The West-chester polo tournament began Saturday, as did the Bayside Hunt Horse Show, near Flushing. The Plainfield Horse Show is scheduled for June 17th and 18th, and Lenox is soon to have a fox hunt, at which Miss Kate Cary proposes to figure prominently.

The spiender of the tollets at the recent wedding of Miss Ellinor Whitney, to Mr. Archie Blanchard is still the theme of comment among New York society women. The bridesmaids who were stunning gowns of "ruffled and shirred Valenciennes lace, with broad satin girdies and half-length sleeves," were specially commented upon. Their hats were described as being made of "white lace, with brim drapery wreathed in pink roses."

The engagement of Miss Margaret Oliver, the daughter of Mr. Charles Oliver, to Mr. Burton Holmes, of Chicago, has been broken off and Baltimore and Chicago smart folks are trying to find out the reason why.

Mrs. Letitia Tyler Semple, the daughter of President Tyler, and a former misstress of the White House, has attained her eighty-fourth year, in the Louise Home, Washington. In remembering the famous statemen of her father's admin-bears, and the same may be said con-The Picturesque Garden Hats in soft, drooping effects, becoming to almost every face, trimmed in flowers, ribbon and lace. In all their pristine beauty and perfection, they await your inspection to-morrow.

Summer Ribbons.

Just the words "Summer Ribbons" conjures up before one's mind's eye the pretty touches that ribbons give to flutfy costumes, and the costumes call for ribbons this season and are the more becoming because of them. Those here listed are full of suggestions for the dainty midsummer dresses, for millinery uses, for the hair, the neck and the popular sashes; the last mentioned we make free of charge. The following prices explain why this department is so well patronized:

SOFT, LUSTROUS MOUSSELINE
TABFFETA RIBBONS, in all the prevalling shades of changeable blue, tanreaeds, crushed strawberry, yellow, pink; regular 60c. value,

25c

Satin Taffeta Ribbons.

SPECIAL

Summer Neckwear.

The advent of the hot, perspiring days means extra demands made on Neckwear, and Mademolselle Up-to-Date must be well supplied in order to preserve a fresh, dainty appearance. Whatever her need or fancy, she can gratify it here. A surprising amount of prettiness is worked into these inexpensive Neck Fixings.

Handsome Yoke formed of bands of $3.50 muslin, lace and medallions, at......

Parasols and Umbrellas.

The Advanced Season's

Millinery

as now exhibited in our sections devoted to the display of Dress Hats presents-an elaborate.

picturesque arrangement of ex-

The one here shown denotes the revival of the quaint, peculiarly

"Kitty Bellairs"

a notable masterpiece, exemplifying the highest art in Millinery-that of simplicity in treatment—(as you see)—yet elegant, becoming and effective withal.

An added attraction appears within the very modest price mark that this Hat quisite fanciful types.

Modes in

With Umbrellas called into requisition nearly every other day just now—nothing could be more opportune than the special values that this department now offers—one feature is that of a regular $1.50 Gloria 98c Silk Umbrella, instead of $1.50, at.....

In Parasols we show all that the midsummer dresses and costumes call for and in the way of a bargain item, there's still a goodly number of those $3 Taffeta Silk Parasols, that by reason of the way $1.59 we bought them, are selling, instead of $8, for.....

Cor. Fourth and Broad.

istration, she gives her preference to Daniel Webster because "he had a way with women."

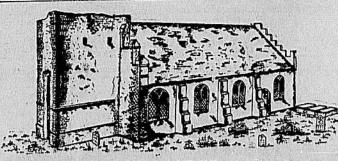

STATE NORMAL SCHOOL.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

STATE NORMAL SCHOOL, FARMVILLE, VA., June 4.—The annual reception to the seniors occurred Friday evening, May 27th, from 8 to 12 o'clock, Every available inch of space was hospitably open, parlors, assembly hall, class rooms, training school, library, kindergarten, All were beautifully decorated. Even the (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Jarman, assisted by members of the sen-lor class, who, by their charm and cour-tesy, added much to the pleasure of the evening. Mr. Cox, the bis, popular, smil-ing steward, was everywhere at once, it

During the whole evening music was enjoyed in the assembly hall, campus was made most inviting by myriads of brilliant colored lanterns. Crimson and white, the senior colors, prevalled in all decorations. Never has the Normal School looked so attractive. It was thronged with merry, happy it was thronged with merry, happy guesis, for invitations had been extended to every girl in school and to all friends in town. The guests were most graciously received by Mrs. Morrison and Mr. Morrison and Mr. Jarman, and no one does it more cordially and charmingly.

Colonial Dames' Memorial Building at Jamestown.

Wedding Gifts.

STERLING SILVER FORKS and Spoons, single Serving Pieces, and Silver-handled Cutlery—the best productions in correct weights. Our prices are the lowest.

and careful attention. Goods sent on approval to all responsible persons— express prepaid.

Galt & Bro., Established Over a Century.

Jewellers, Silversmithe, Stationers, 1107 Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D. C.

ingly.

But if the reception was the most beautiful, the programme of Saturday night following was the most exciting event in the history of the Normal School, It was the first inter-society debate between the Cunningham and Argus Literary Societies. The question, Resolved, That a representative should be guided in his official acts by the expressed will of his constituents, was affirmed by Miss Zaides Bmith, Mary Schofield and Scotia Starke, representing the Cunningham Society, It was donled by Misses Katherine Grayson, Lucy Manson and Florida Ashby, of the Argus. These six young ladies handled their question in a masterly manner.

ner.

The judges were Judge Watkins, Judge Crute and Mr. Russell. When it was announced by the graceful and courteous chairman of the evening, Mr. Elmer E. Jones, that the decision was unanimously in favbor of the nagative—well, those in the audience inclined to nervousness had to seek refuge in immediate flight.

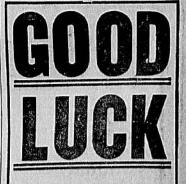

The debate as a whole was a great credit to the societies and the school. The young ladies of the Cuningham and Argus are to be heartily congratulated upon such a brilliant, enthusiastic conclusion of their first year's work.

KNIGHTS OF LABOR WANT POWDERLY AS LEADER

(By Associated Press.) BOSTON, MASS., June 4.—A movement is under way in Knights of Labor circles to have Terence V, Powderly, formerly, master workman of that organization, assume the leadership once more.

Michael J. Kenney, secretary-treasurer of District Assembly 20, of thi scity, is authority for the statement that Mr. Powderly has been asked to take charge of affairs, and that he has intimated that if his election is unanimous, he will accept. Arrangements are being made for a hig mass-meeting in Boston, and to-day. a big mass-meeting in Boston, and to-day, the former leader was invited to come here and deliver an addresss.

Richmonders in New York. 9 (Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NEW YORK, June 4.—Rossmore, J. T.
Thompson: Earlington, A. Anderson;
Fifth Avenue, J. Bryan; I. Z. Rhentan;
Eyoadway Central, A. Lynds, Miss Lynds, Astor, E. H. Chalkley; Imperial, H.
Campbell.

MAKES BREAD THAT FATTENS

BAKING